

Kimberly Hoover has been a member of the South Carolina Medical Group Management Association (SCMGMA) and the national Medical Group Management Association (MGMA) for nearly 20 years. She held several offices and chaired many committees including Governor, Governor-Elect, and Treasurer, for the state board and has held the position of State Liaison on the national level representing the states of Georgia and Tennessee. Kimberly has also held the position of Columbia Chapter President and co-chaired one of three Tri-State Conferences along with the North Carolina and Georgia MGMA's. Kimberly's love and dedication for the SCMGMA was displayed mostly in her passion of the Insurance and Legislative Committee which she chaired for many years. In addition, Kimberly was a certified medical practice executive (CMPE) as well as a certified coder (CPC).
